Lyrasis Announces New Director of Information Technology

Atlanta, GA, August 24, 2009 – Lyrasis announces that Dee Anderson is the new Lyrasis Director of Information Technology, as part of its commitment to expand support and services to member libraries and institutions.

Dee Anderson brings 17 years of senior information technology leadership experience across multiple industries to her new position. Prior to joining Lyrasis, she was Director of Enterprise Sales Technology for Intercontinental Hotels Group, Atlanta, GA; Technical Product Manager for John H. Harland Company, Atlanta, GA; Director of Enterprise Application Support for Innotrak Corporation, Atlanta, GA, among other positions.

She received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Finance from the University of Central Florida, Orlando, FL and is a member of the Project Management Institute (PMI) of Atlanta, GA.

As Lyrasis Director of Information Technology, she is responsible for leading a team of IT professionals to manage operations, develop solutions, and support Lyrasis; for designing, introducing, and implementing technology solutions and services; and for maintaining high levels of support services to external members and internal customers. She may be contacted at dee.anderson@lyrasis.org.

About Lyrasis

A regional membership organization for libraries and information professionals, Lyrasis facilitates their success today and tomorrow by providing access to shared knowledge and expertise, innovative products and services, and customized solutions to serve their communities effectively and, by working together, advance the profession. Lyrasis is the new organization resulting from the merger of PALINET and SOLINET, and currently serves nearly a third of the U.S., including 16 states east of the Mississippi, plus Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. For more information, please visit www.lyrasis.org.
