

Core Values of the Lyrasis Content and Scholarly Communication Initiatives Team

Integrity

We cultivate trusted relationships with our members and partners through open, authentic, and honest dialogue, prioritizing causes that benefit the communities we serve.

Sustainability

We foster resilient communities and partnerships throughout the evolving scholarly communication ecosystem.

Inclusivity

We recognize that diverse perspectives create empowered and influential communities and more equitable systems.

Creativity

We seek wide-ranging opportunities to achieve positive change and develop innovative models that meet emerging needs.

Connectivity

We inspire collaboration within and across communities, knowing that we can accomplish more together than alone.