The Cummings Center promotes the history of psychology and related human sciences to the broadest spectrum of communities possible through its mission of providing access, education, inclusion, and service to these communities. To ensure access for future generations to its historical materials, the Cummings Center is pursuing funding for storage and environmental improvements.

CUMMINGS CENTER BASEMENT & STORAGE NEEDS AT A GLANCE

- Ceiling Decomposition
- Hidden Damage
- Mud & Debris
- Goal: Environment Stabilization

ENVIRONMENTAL STABILIZATION SOLUTIONS

- Ceiling Repair
- HVAC System
- Structural Building Analysis
- Water Drainage Solution

COLLECTIONS AT RISK

"More than a home for the papers and artifacts of [psychology], the Center is a permanent reminder of the quest to understand what it means to be human – to think, to have feelings, and to interact with others.”

- Wertheimer Family Papers documenting the life and work of Max and his son, Michael, whose family immigrated to the United States during the Nazi rise to power.

- David Boder recordings of Holocaust survivors and displaced persons, including Jewish songs from a displaced persons camp in Henonville, France.

SUPPORT US & DONATE NOW TO PRESERVE HISTORY TODAY!

Dr. Cathy Faye, Director
cfaye@akron.edu
330.972.6096

www.lyrasis.org